RE: Omission of Personal Identifiers Prior to Submission or Filing

Effective July 1, 2009, the Ohio Rules of Superintendence, in conjunction with the 2009 Ohio Sunshine Laws, states the following under Sup. R. 45 (D) (1):

“When submitting a case document to a court or filing a case document with a clerk of court, a party to a judicial action or proceeding shall omit personal identifiers from the document.”

Sup. R. 45 (D) (3) states:

“The responsibility for omitting personal identifiers from a case document submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court pursuant to division (D) (1) of this rule shall rest solely with the party. The court or clerk is not required to review the case document to confirm that the party has omitted personal identifiers, and shall not refuse to accept or file the document on that basis.”

Please make note that this rule affects all filings in Ohio courts.

Sincerely,

Lisa Zeno Carano
Clerk of Court
